

National MASLD Symposium

AGENDA

Friday 25 October, 2024 | 8.30am – 4.30pm

Greg Craven Centre, Australian Catholic University

Level 7, St Teresa of Kolkata Building, 115b Victoria Parade, Fitzroy

8.30am – 9.00am: Registration

1. Welcome, Acknowledgement of Country and Introductions

2. Setting the scene

- Low awareness of MASLD/MASH and the need for public policies and to expand the community of practice (virtual international keynote) - Prof Jeffrey V Lazarus
- Prevalence, patterns of the disease, and at-risk priority populations - Prof Stuart Roberts

3. Exploring the Global Consensus Statement Locally: Presentations and participant discussion

- The human and economic burden. Australian data on economic and quality of life burden of disease – limitations and opportunities - Dr Elena George.

Morning tea

4. Exploring the Global Consensus Statement Locally: Presentations and participant discussion (continued)

- Defining and implementing models of care. Early detection and care pathways - Assoc Prof Leon Adams
- Treatment advances and optimal models of MASLD care - Assoc Prof Jess Howell
- Lived transplant experience - Bella Simon
- Education and awareness. MASLD literacy and health promotion for chronic disease - Assoc Prof Paul Gow & Elaine Montegriffo
- Leadership and policies. Collaborative advocacy and partnership - Jane Martin.

Lunch

5. Panel discussion: Addressing MASLD through a health promotion and non-communicable disease lens

Assoc Prof Paul Gow | Prof David Simmons | Jane Martin | Naveena Nekkhalapudi

6. Participant focused discussion: What needs to change to advance the MASLD public health agenda in Australia?

Afternoon tea

7. Summary and next steps

4:30pm: Close